COMMUNITY BOOK STUDY

April 11, 25, May 2, 9
6 - 7 p.m. - Virtual

Parents and community members are invited to participate in a book study of Zaretta Hammond's, "Culturally Responsive Teaching & the Brain." This four-night event will be presented virtually, and led by R-H's Director of Wellness and Equity Dr. Diane Wynne, and Director of Professional Development Dominic Piacentini.

Participation is limited, and advance registration is required. A copy of the book will be provided.
